Overview:

The strength of the Aurora Farmers' Market & Artisan Fair lies in the congenial atmosphere that is created by our vendors and the Market community. The Code of Ethical Practices recognizes and aims to protect the unique attributes of the Market that makes it an important contributor to the social and cultural fabric of the Town of Aurora.

The Code of Ethical Practices strives to ensure that the Market environment is safe, secure and enjoyable for the public, vendors and all Market participants.

The Code of Ethical Practices must be signed by the applicant as a condition of acceptance to the Aurora Farmers' Market & Artisan Fair and applies to the Vendor and his/her employees working at the Market on their behalf.

Practices:

As a Vendor at the Aurora Farmers' Market & Artisan Fair, I (my employees and volunteers) will:

- Demonstrate the highest standard of behavior and integrity at all times.
- Conduct myself in a courteous and respectful manner toward the public, vendors and all Market participants.
- Refrain from behavior that interferes with the rights or working/selling opportunities of other Vendors.
- Refrain from using language or behavior that is offensive, threatening or intimidating to others.
- Refrain from "carnival barking" - loud, aggressive sales practices.
- Not participate at the Market under the influence of alcohol or recreational drugs.
- No smoking at or around the booth areas as per Municipal and Provincial legislation.
- Refrain from any slanderous or libelous actions against the AFMAF Board members, individual Vendors and/or the Market as a whole.
- Abide by all rules and regulations of the York Region Health Department regarding safe food preparation, handling, display and labeling. Perishable food products must be refrigerated as per public health requirements.
- Abide by all rules, regulations and by-laws set forth by Municipal, Provincial, and Federal government levels.
- Operate vehicles in a safe and responsible manner in the vicinity of the Market.
- Not speak on behalf of the AFMAF Board and its members to the public, press, or other entities unless authorized by the AFMAF Chair/Board to do so.

Failure to comply with any component of the AFMAF's Code of Ethical Practices and Constitution will be investigated and assessed by the AFMAF Board. Any violations of either will result in the AFMAF Board taking disciplinary action appropriate to the severity of the violation(s). Such actions may include verbal warnings, suspension from Market participation and/or expulsion from the Market.
